No Eastern News

We are again without a dispatch or any later intelligence from the Atlantic coast The Sacramento Union received last night, dated November 30th, says that "the Continental telegraph was reported to be out of order east of Fort Kearney on Saturday and no dispatches have been received since our last issue The intelligence to come must be very important From Grant we expect accounts of the harvest of victory in Georgia From Virginia will come the tidings of a triumph or a defeat The latest dispatches from the Army of the Potomac indicated that in crossing the Rapidan, Meade intended to cut loose from his long line of communication, and, like Grant in Mississippi, fight a battle or series of battles to win another and a shorter line—either the Fredericksburg railroad or the route from the Pamunkey to Richmond As the army advanced on the morning of the 26th the issue has doubtless been determined ere this date Burnside has crippled the Virginia and East Tennessee railroad so that it is not probable that Longstreet has been able to get back to Lee's army by that route

Our San Francisco dispatch states that banker's dispatches—probably received on Saturday before the wires gave out—indicate that gold will be lower "

The blame where it belongs

Democratic papers, speakers and conventions are constantly declaring that the only hope of the country is in the success of their party, and the defeat of those who form the Union organization This they do, though they know that the war actually commenced during the administration of James Buchanan, whose Democracy was so pure, tender and long suffering that he would not resist the beginning of treason but suffered it to grow till it made a monstrous rebellion They know that not a single man who has ever been identified with the Republican party has taken up arms against the Government, while every prominent Southern leader is a Democrat Davis, Toombs, Slidell Breckinridge, Wigfall, Hunter the robber Floyd Cobb—all of them were Democrats, just like their present friends at the North, who are bawling about the patriotism of their treasonable party, and its resuscitation from the infamous grave to which the people have, we trust, consigned it forever.

In every Southern State, Democrats kindled the secession sentiment, and enabled it to destroy for the time being every vital and substantial vestige of love and respect for the Union, and the measure of intensity of opposition to the Government in all was the Democratic majority Thus South Carolina, the Gibraltar of Democracy, led the rebellious clans, while Alabama and Mississippi, where none but simon pure Democrats are ever heard of, followed close upon her traitorous heels.

The fact—the honest truth is, the Democratic party, and that alone is responsible for the war, and for all the woe, and all the waste of life and treasure which have followed in its train The policy and principles of that party for ten years past, have been destructive to the country, and it is and has been pledged to the most mischievous heresies, lending its influence and the once honored sanctity of its name to projects which cannot fail to overthrow the Government and to ruin the Nation Its success upon its present avowed platform would be not only a political misfortune, but a public calamity, to avoid which, the welfare of the country demands its utter destruction Its restoration to power would be the harbinger of future wrongs—of endless sectional conflicts for it is the nurse of slavery, upon which it lives and thrives, becoming like its source, the foe of the Republic, and the base tool of ungodly traitors

Presidential Mistakes —The veteran democrat—Daniel S Dickinson—in a recent speech said that in the war of 1812, Mr Madison made ten mistakes where Abraham Lincoln has made one yet the democratic party sustained the Executive then, and made their fortunes as a party by their patriotic course

And he might have added that the same party, by its persistent and factious opposition to the Administration in all measures for the prosecution of the present war, is making for itself a record and a reputation of infamy, which it can never remove

Liberal and Patriotic —Major Samuel J Hensley, of California the owner of the steamships Pacific and Brother Jonathan has contributed $5,000 in coin to the Sanitary Fund

The Ocean Steamer may reasonably be looked for sometime to-morrow provided she arrived down in time to leave San Francisco on Monday last—her advertised day for sailing She will bring seven or eight days later Eastern news

Criticisms of the English Press on the President's Springfield Letter —The London papers are discussing the political and literary merits of the President's letter to the Springfield Convention The Times affects to find it grossly inconsistent in its views with those expressed in his former letters and messages, and says he never had a policy unless it be that which he described in the wisest of all his homely sayings, as a resolution to "keep pegging away" It then quotes his paragraph about "Uncle Sam's web feet" and says

It was any man in his senses [illegible] could have [illegible] over with gravity, [illegible] printed [illegible] comprehension [illegible] racular response with a [illegible] Yankee slang and terms of expression which reminds alternately of Ossian [illegible] the incoherent utterances of the Maori Chief and of the [illegible] choruses in Greek tragedies

On the other hand the Daily News says

That letter confirms our faith in the man who has the conduct of the war and the direction of the Washington Cabinet It is a master piece of cogent argument As an appeal to the spirit of the nation it is sublime in the dignified majesty of its eloquence No [illegible] State paper was ever penned It is the manifesto of a truly great man in an exigency of almost unequaled moment [illegible] worthy of a Cromwell or a Washington It breathes the calm heroism of a true patriot—trusting in the blessings of God upon dauntless exertions in a just cause It is the utterance of a statesman who has nothing to conceal—of a ruler guiltless of oppression—of the genius that consists in transparent honesty and unflinching resolution Addressed to friends and neighbors to supporters and opponents, it is open to all the world to read It really challenges the judgment of contemporary civilization, though it contains scarce a hint of any country but the United States

Bloody and Furious —The Mobile News contains the proceedings of a meeting held in Lowndes county, Mississippi, which adopted unanimously some resolutions, of which the following specimens will indicate the character

Resolved That a bottomless gulf of unutterable blood and hate now separates us from the people of the United States and that we will maintain that separation either to the recognition of our independent nationality or our extermination as a free people

Resolved That any expression of a sentiment hinting in the remotest degree to recognize the probability of the reconstruction of the old Union, is cowardly and treasonable that it should be scorned and crushed, wherever it dare reveal itself, by all true patriots, as well as by the strong arm of the Government

Yet the men who pass such resolutions wish to come back to the Union, according to Democratic organs, if the President will call home the army and withdraw his Emancipation proclamation ! What argument can reach such sympathizers, who, in spite of repeated declarations from the South, still persist in uttering foolish demands and prayers for peace when there can be none, till the rebellion is thoroughly crushed, and the South is forced to submit to lawful authority ?

An Impromptu Thanksgiving —A correspondent of the New York Post, writing from Columbus Ohio, on the 14th ult , gives the following account of a scene he witnessed

When the returns began to come in this morning with such unprecedented majorities and gains for the Union ticket the whole town grew wild with excitement Business ceased, and everybody came out into the streets to huzza The crowd gathered near my office and after a few moments Col Moodie mounted a box and made a speech—a capital and effective one The excitement of the crowd increased and cheer upon cheer greeted the utterances of the speaker Finally Moodie (who was a Methodist preacher formerly) as he drew to a close, said "If I were in a Methodist meeting I would cry—'Glory to God' and 'Sing the Doxology'" At this the crowd cried—"Hats off Silence! Go at it Colonel" At once he commenced "Praise God" to the tune of Old Hundred, and that vast assemblage took it up and every man in it sung with all his might A nobler "anthem" for the deliverance God has wrought out for us from traitors and bloody men could not have been sung and the impressiveness of the scene can only be appreciated by those whose fortune it was to witness it

The Failure of the Draft —The Chicago Tribune has the following to account for the comparative failure of the draft, and it might have made a worse hit

Why has the draft produced so few soldiers ? We can answer the question The War Department appointed Professor Lieber to frame a list of causes for exemption for the government of Examining Boards The learned Professor exercised his profound research to discover diseases, ailments and ills that flesh is heir to, that would form a pretext for granting certificates of exemption He succeeded in producing a catalogue of enormous length, and susceptible of endless abuse. He opened a hole as wide as a barn door, through which two hundred thousand drafted men marched out in double file He established a standard of physical perfection so high that only here and there a man was found equal to it. It was no trouble for the soundest and ablest bodied men to obtain certificates of exemption from the Examining Board There are very few perfectly sound men in civilized countries—men free from all traces of disease—and if a conscript possessed any symptom of ailment he could easily magnify it and by simulation, personal influence or bribery induce the Examining Surgeon to grant him a certificate of exemption

A Little Overweighted —Those who visit the sick soldiers and do good in the hospitals, occasionally get a gleam of fun among all the sad scenes, for any wag who has been to the war seldom loses his humor, though he may have lost all else save that and honor Witness a sketch from life

C [illegible] good soul after taking all the little comforts he could afford to the wounded soldiers went into the hospital for the fortieth time the other day with his mite consisting of several papers of cut chewing tobacco—solace for the wounded as he called it He came to one bed where a poor fellow lay cheerfully humming a tune and studying out faces on the papered wall "Got a fever?" asked C "No" answered the soldier "Got a cold?" again asked C "Yes cold lead" "Where?" "Well to tell the truth it is pretty well scattered First there is a bullet in my right arm—they haint dug that out yet One in my right leg—but the bone—that fellow hurts One through my left hand—that fell out And I tell you what friend, with all this lead in me I feel generally speaking, a little heavy all over

Gen Scott on the Generals —Agate a correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, in a recent letter from Washington, writes

General Scott was encountered the other day by a leading Washington official with whom the old veteran fell into a very unreserved talk about Generals It will not surprise any one to know that he pronounces Lee the greatest General of the war thus far—or that he declares that he was more disappointed in General McClellan's performances than he ever was before with those of any other in our service General Grant's operations he [illegible] exhibiting more military skill than any other General had exhibited on our side and he was the more surprised and mystified at it as he could only remember him in the Mexican war as a young Lieutenant of undoubted courage but giving no promise whatever of anything beyond ordinary abilities If he had remembered that Gen Tecumseh Sherman was Gen Grant's right hand man his mystification might have been diminished

Union Sentiment in Baltimore —The Union gives an account of the great Union Mass Meeting lately held at Baltimore, deeming it one of the most significant proofs of the change in popular sentiment in the Border States which has been shown Its remarks in regard to the course of Blair, the P M General will perhaps surprise those of our readers who have not observed the peculiar political combinations which are now in progress of formation and which are likely soon to present novel issues We quote as follows

But a little while ago Maryland was almost convulsed with rebellion against the Government [illegible] stimulated by the [illegible] of slavery and Southern rights the Legislature of the State conspired to carry her out of the Union the streets of Baltimore—that [illegible] were [illegible] with the blood [illegible] shed by the defenders of the nation and everywhere the spirit of secession and pro slavery [illegible] appeared dominant for evermore But now we see the largest and most enthusiastic assemblages ever known in Baltimore congregated in Monument Square bearing each nodding upon banners [illegible] mottoes as the [illegible] Emancipation [illegible] Slavery is Dead—its Treason killed it "Infamy the Reward of Rebels" "Emancipation and Free White Labor" "Slavery is the Mother of the Rebellion" How wonderful is the change! To actually hear with our own ears loyal Marylanders making speeches in favor of immediate Emancipation, and a loyal crowd of Baltimoreans applauding to the echo the most radical utterances—the radical Secretary of the Treasury making the most conservative speech of them all Is this the Maryland of the rebel boast now promising 20 000 majority for the Unconditional Union Emancipation ticket? Truly wonders will never cease and it is not strange that President Lincoln could not find words in which to express his feelings when invited to attend a Union meeting in Baltimore—that Baltimore through which he was secretly conveyed three years ago

But the great outpouring at Baltimore night before last had another significance to those who watch political events and who understand the inside working of political cabal The election of Henry Winter Davis and the triumph of the Emancipationists in Maryland is the defeat of Montgomery Blair and all of his kind It is a matter of common notoriety that he has strained every nerve to defeat Winter Davis and to give what official sanction he could to an extra conservative policy in Maryland Assuming to speak for the President and the majority of the Cabinet he delivered his Rockville speech in which he assailed Sumner and Chase and [illegible] State Rights theory as being that of the Administration He went to Baltimore again and again to secure, if possible a candidate for Congress who could run against Winter Davis on some half hearted war platform and if he did not succeed in getting up a milk and water candidate for that purpose it was not for the reason that he did not try He was unsuccessful, for few dare to attempt a campaign against the noble and loyal Marylander and Winter Davis will be triumphantly elected The Baltimore meeting had the countenance and support of Secretary Chase, and his simple words of sympathy and cheer for the struggling sons of freedom in Maryland were received with the wildest enthusiasm One could not but feel, as the eye took in the vast multitude which surged through the square bearing upon the gusty waves of popular excitement innumerable torches and transparencies innumerable, that a great and momentous revolution had occurred and that a signal and grave repulse was then and there administered to that narrow minded Cabinet officer who had stooped so low as to try to drive public sentiment against the policy of the Administration of which he is a member

There is but one expression and that of reprobation toward Postmaster General Blair for his extraordinary course and it now remains to be seen whether Lincoln will sacrifice his chances of a renomination by tacitly indorsing Blair's ratiocinations by retaining him in the Cabinet Although he was appointed to his place upon the urgent request of such radicals as Sumner and Wilson against whom he now turns we cannot expect that any sense of obligation to them would induce him to modify his own private views or restrain his public utterances Good faith is not a characteristic trait of the Blair family But good sense, at least, might have restrained him from lending his own wrong headed opinions upon the Administration of which he is a member Soon after the Pennsylvania election Judge Kelley of Philadelphia, and John W Forney called upon the President with their congratulations—and Forney, with his usual outspoken candor very plainly said to the President Blair being then present, that his conservative friend Governor Curtin desired the President to know that if the Rockville speech of Postmaster General Blair had been made thirty days earlier it would have lost the Union ticket in Pennsylvania twenty thousand votes He also expressed his astonishment to Blair that he, a Cabinet Minister, should have the hardihood to utter such sentiments in public just on the eve of important elections in other States as those of the Rockville speech Blair responded that whatever Forney might think of the matter he had only spoken at Rockville his honest sentiments Then said the impetuous Forney, turning upon him "why don't you leave the Cabinet and not load down with your individual and peculiar sentiments the Administration to which you belong?"

The President sat by a silent spectator of this singular and unexpected scene I hope, however that he was edified, for if he does not realize the unfortunate position in which he is being pushed by Blair, he must make up his mind to fall with Blair, for it is morally certain that no such fossiliferous theories and narrowminded policy as that of the Postmaster General is to be indorsed by the people of any of the loyal States Every State election this Fall has rejected such a notion and the people are too far advanced in liberal ideas to consent that any standard bearer of theirs shall refuse to carry the banner of "Freedom of All"

General Thomas whose fame has been so much increased by the battles in Georgia, enjoys the distinction of being the successor to the rebel General Lee in the regular army The New York Tribune says

When Lee was in the United States service he was Colonel of the 2d Cavalry, and Gen Thomas was Major in the same regiment Both the Colonel and Lieutenant Colonel resigning to enter the rebel service Major Thomas became Colonel of his regiment by regular promotion Under the new arrangement in the army by which the cavalry dragoons and mounted rifles are consolidated the 2d are now become the 5th Cavalry, of which Gen Thomas remains the Colonel while he holds the additional rank of Major General of Volunteers A gruff, tamed bear sort of a looking personage is Gen Thomas with a face hidden in a profuse growth of sandy beard, that gives a wonderfully truculent expression to his countenance, a manner that partakes rather of years of command in camps than of the courtesies of the drawing room but that is at least frank and direct, and with a contempt of show that manifests itself in adhering to the uniform of a cavalry Colonel instead of donning the short lived stellar glory of a [illegible] during the war Generalship

Boise News —We condense the following items from a late number of the Boise News

A man named Kittridge was shot and killed at Placerville on the 18th ult The killing grew out of a dispute about a mining claim

A rich lode has been discovered near Bannock on Bear Run It is said to be rich in both gold and silver and has been entered for incorporation in the Boise Gold and Silver Mining Company

Good diggings are said to have been found between the head waters of Moores Creek and North Boise about 35 miles from Bannock, in a northerly direction

A train of twenty three wagons loaded with flour had arrived from Salt Lake The wagons carried from 5500 to 6000 each The flour cost $ [illegible] per hundred at Salt Lake and was freighted through at $8 per 100 pounds It brought $41 at Bannock

The health of the Boise Basin was improving

Free negroes were permitted to vote in North Carolina until the amendment of the Constitution in 1835 when a prohibition was adopted Senator Douglas in the debate on the admission of Minnesota into the Union stated as a historical incident (which was not contradicted by the North Carolina Senators present) that a distinguished North Carolinian emancipated a large number of his own negroes in order to make them voters to elect him to the Legislature of the State

Secretary Chase —Men in the excitement of the moment sometimes make mistakes and this was the case with F P Blair Jr in St Louis a few evenings since when he made a coarse and vulgar assault upon Secretary Chase If there is a man in public or private life, in all this land to whom the term rowdy and blackguard will not apply, that man is Salmon P Chase And there is no man who has at any period in any nation, ever been more successful in the department of government under his special control than Chase has been in the very able manner in which he has managed the finances of our country in this most important and trying era in our nation's life The country owes him a debt of gratitude which no place however exalted—no honors however great which the people can give him, will ever repay —New York Evening Post

Gen[illegible] —Count [illegible] Schwab [illegible] of Germany is at present stopping at Waltham His liberality to our [illegible] soldiers is the field [illegible] Pounds [illegible] the value of hundreds of dollars has been [illegible] Waltham soldiers—men who are [illegible] strangers He has in [illegible] at his hotel which is filled with useful articles and delicacies [illegible] [illegible] waiting to be presented [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] as [illegible] their [illegible] Colonel in the rebel army, deserves more than a passing notice He is not connected with any Sanitary or Soldiers' Aid Society he accepts no contributions but all his gifts are from his own private purse —[illegible]

The Idaho Murderers —The Walla Walla Statesman learns from a private letter that there was great excitement on the arrival of the prisoners [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] that no fears were entertained [illegible] [illegible] says Mr Beachy was received with [illegible] by the citizens of the place and that he has the prisoners under guard at the Luna House Persons [illegible] down from Lewiston contradict this statement saying the prisoners have been taken to Fort Lapwai Something more definite may be expected this evening —D [illegible]

San Francisco Legal Tenders [illegible]

Our Streets in Rainy Weather —We yesterday heard a proposition discussed to establish a line of canoes and mud boats in our streets, a la street rail cars in other prominent and at least equally well regulated cities The estimates of outlay &c , were seriously interfered with at an early stage of the proceedings by the suggestion that several private citizens with an eye to business, had constructed substantial bulkheads at their street-crossings, upon which travelers could walk comparatively dry shod Unless these few enterprising citizens aforesaid can be restrained, and the obstructions removed by a competent authority street navigation would be impracticable on account of portage delays The rain storm of Sunday night floated considerable lumber which had been devoted to the public use of side walk and street, and gave birth to many voluminous and musical but not remarkably transpicuous cataracts, which with undoubt contributed material to the sedimentary deposites aggregating at certain points below to the obstructing of river navigation Our city can ill afford to have the soil of her front streets sluiced away if it is contemplated to render permanent any future improvements in the river neighborhood.

Drowning Snakes —A poor fellow about 30 years of age, who had been on a spree for several days yesterday conceived the idea that he was a secessionist and flying from a band of abolitionists who sought to hang him under such dire hallucination, he rushed to the edge of the upper wharf in rear of J W [illegible]son's clothing store, and precipitated himself into the river, a distance of at least thirty feet Fortunately some men were unloading a wood boat near at hand, and rescued him from his perilous position The snakes in his boots were evidently of the copperhead persuasion, and did n't like the temperature of our Northern waters, as they were considerably subdued by the immersion. He was taken to the Temperance House and properly cared for, and was improving last night So much for Greek fire whisky

Incorporated Yesterday —Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday in the Clerk's office of Multnomah County, for two companies, namely -

"Daly Gold and Silver Mining Company " William A Daly, John McCracken, H D Green, and P. C Schuyler, jr , incorporators Business, general mining in Boise county, Idaho Territory Capital stock, $320,000 , shares $100 each Principal office in Portland

"Columbia Gold and Silver Mining Company," H D Green P C Schuyler, jr , and Josiah Myrick, incorporators Business, general mining in Boise County, I T Capital stock, $240,000 each share $100 Principal office in Portland

Socials —Last night was eminently a "social" night By social, however, we do not mean convivial, in this particular case The ladies of the Presbyterian Congregation gave a social at the Vestry , the proceeds to be contributed toward cushioning the pews of their new church The ladies of the Episcopal Congregation gave a social to aid in cushioning the pews of their new Chapel These socials are a move in the right direction, and being not to be understood as making "cushions" of serious matters, it is the best and only "cushion game" we can recommend to the patronage of our young men, as conferring permanent benefit upon themselves or anybody else.

School Tax payers can be accommodated with receipts at the Intelligence office of Parrish & Mulkey where the autograph of L M Parrish Clerk of School District No 1, can be had for a very small per centage of the applicant's property The demands upon this fund are urgent, and the necessities for its immediate collection imperative

No Mail from the Sound —The steamer Cortez arrived from Monticello early last evening but brought no mail We are told that Mr Burbank had it in his possession, but decided to retain it until the J H Couch returned from Astoria It will, Post Master permitting, be here to-day

The Wilson G Hunt, last evening, brought up about twenty passengers, and 40 pounds of dust by Mr West messenger for Wells, Fargo & Company making 180 pounds received by Express this week.

Red and Music —A goodly number of the firemen escorted the Chief Engineer elect to his residence on Monday night, to the enlivening strains of martial music, and had a good time generally in a quiet way

For Oak Point —The bark Samuel Merritt completes discharging her cargo and will sail for Oak Point this morning, to load lumber for San Francisco

Hunt where you will on the Pacific Coast, from Behring's Straits to Terra del Fuega (not omitting the Metropolitan City of San Francisco,) and you will not find so elegant an establishment as that of Heuston Hastings & Co , of Lick House Montgomery street, corner of Sutter Their Stock of Clothing, Trunks, Life Preservers, etc , is unsurpassed for style, material and workmanship

Chronic Diarrhœa Cured by DR BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA, when everything else had failed

Westfield, Ia, June 22 1852

Messrs A L Scovill & Co—Gents I have been most awfully afflicted for the last three years with the Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst form I have tried more than a thousand prescriptions from numerous physicians and all without the desired effect My case was said to be hopeless and I believed it myself I commenced using Dr BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA with but little faith but I followed the directions given, and to my great surprise the fifth dose had in a measure checked my disease It has been just ten days from the date of this certificate since I commenced using Baker's Panacea, and I am nearly as well as ever I am confident one more twenty five cent bottle will entirely cure me Please accept and use this certificate as you see proper, inasmuch as I owe my life to the inventor of this invaluable Panacea

Truly yours DAVID T BOTTS

THERE is no other way to cure diseases but by first purifying the whole system so as to create a healthy circulation.

The first medical men of the age agree with us, that no disease of any extent can be cured without using such medicines as will act directly upon the blood Why many medical men have failed to cure chronic diseases is, because the medicines used have not been such as will act beneficially on the blood

The many thousands of bottles which have been used by the public, and the many gallons and barrels supplied to the physicians, warrant us in saying that the last two years we have been more successful with our Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup in curing hopeless cases of chronic diseases than have any other remedies in the hands of physicians, or before the public

It is now admitted that no combination known to the profession acts so promptly upon diseases as our SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP

TUBS, PAILS and BASKETS, for sale at HARRINGTON'S, 91 First st

Optical Illusion.—The Richmond Examiner is responsible for the following illustration of optical illusion

Three young men, handsomely dressed, sat by the well fountain in Capitol square yesterday smoking and chatting pleasantly and leisurely While thus engaged in whiling away time, a respectable looking citizen whose head was rather grayish, and expression somewhat stern and cynical, took a seat on the same bench and managed to glide into the conversation, turning its course meanwhile to the army At length he asked

"How is it gentlemen that you in the full tide of health with apparently plenty of time and money, well to light up and all that—how is it that you sit here idly, and see others fighting and being butchered up, and sickening to death for your sake"

"Well" responded one "the army would suit me well enough but for one thing if you will pull off that neatly fitting shoe, and roll up my drawers, you will find a leg made of leather straps and iron ribs The original I left at Sharpsburg"

"As for me" remarked the second, "if you will take the trouble to feel this left arm, you will discover that the bone between the shoulder blade and the elbow, to the length of about five inches has been removed When I stand upon my right foot, also, I am balancing on my toes, the heel being gone Result of bullets in the second battle of Manassas"

The third youth scarcely knew what to say, but looked daggers at the cynical old codger, and finally broke out "The same sort of talk forced me in I was a shaking skeleton when I joined, and on the first march I broke down got put into one of the meanest hospitals in the country, and came out paralyzed to one side" Here he held up a shriveled and lifeless arm "And may I ask, sir," he added "what keeps you out" You seem to be in excellent vigor"

"Me" I—why—ahem—I am over forty five."

An Irishman's Experience in the South Those who think Jeff Davis' Confederacy a pleasant place to sojourn in, and who vote in the North so as to encourage Jeff to keep up his first class concern, will oblige us by listening to the experience of an Irishman, formerly a resident of Schuylkill county Matthew Farne, who lived in Ashland went to the South several years since, and when the war broke out was forced into the rebel army, 1st Louisiana Artillery He was taken prisoner at the surrender of Vicksburg and is now at Camp Morton Indianapolis Indiana He is desirous of taking the oath of allegiance and an application has been made to Governor Curtin to have him released

To show the feelings of an Irishman who has tasted the beauties of rebeldom, we quote from a letter from him to his brother in Ashland "You may rejoice that you have never for a moment borne the galling yoke of secessionism, or the bondage of worse than Egyptian slavery that I with thousands of others, have been obliged to carry for the two last years, and we thank the providence of God that we are on the road to the land of freedom where, alone, a man can act as he should act I do now tell you candidly, that I know not of one Irishman, when required to enter the Union service, but will do so with more energy than if they never knew the misguided cause they have been connected with" He has a poor opinion of the secesh officers "I tell you, and you may believe me, that a more cowardly set of men I never saw than the officers at the seige of Vicksburg, for though we stood the fire, famine and fatigue for seven weeks they skulked into their hiding places more than common negroes Such is the chivalry of the south so much heralded But when they fight a few more battles like Vicksburg the demoralization of their own army will cripple and crush them —Pottsville (Pa) Journal

Affecting Letter —The following letter was lately addressed to a Captain in the Thirteenth Regulars at Vicksburg

Gayoso House, Memphis (Tenn)
October 4th—12 P M

Captain C C Smith, Commanding Battery Thirteenth Regulars—My Dear Friend I cannot sleep to night till I record an expression of the deep feelings of my heart to you, and to the officers and soldiers of the battalion, for their kind behavior to my poor child I realize that you all feel for my family the attachment of kindred, and I assure you all of full reciprocity Consistent with a sense of duty to my profession and office I could not leave my post, and sent for my family to come to me in that fatal climate, and in that sickly period of the year and behold the result! The child who bore my name and in whose future I reposed with more confidence than I did in my own plans of life now floats a mere corpse, seeking a grave in a distant land, with a weeping mother brother and sister clustered about him But for myself I can ask no sympathy On, on I must go, till I meet a soldier's fate or see my country rise superior to all factions till its flag is adored and respected by ourselves and all the powers of earth But my poor Willie was or thought he was, a Sergeant of the Thirteenth I have seen his eye brighten and his heart beat as he beheld the battalion under arms and asked me if they were not real soldiers God only knows why he should die thus young He is dead, but will not be forgotten until those who knew him in life have followed to the same mysterious end Please convey to the battalion my heartfelt thanks, and assure each and all that if, in after years they call on me or mine, and mention that they were of the Thirteenth Regulars when poor Willie was a Sergeant they will have a key to the affections of my family that will open all it has—that we will share with them our last blanket—our last crust

Your friend
W T SHERMAN, Major General

Webster's Best Speech —"Mr Webster," said a friend of ours once to the Great Expounder, "which of your productions do you place first?" He replied, "My friend Mr Everett, prefers my speech on Gen Jackson's protest The mass of my countrymen probably prefer my reply to Col Hayne But I prefer the first speech I ever made at Plymouth Rock" Perhaps the great statesman was right That speech is so glorious a defense of liberty as the boon and right of every human being that I am almost ready to forget the final apostasy of the giant, and to bury up the memory of the atrocious "Seventh of March" speech in yonder grave to which it hastened its author In these days of our dear country's fiery purification, when to the thrilling music of falling chains the Republic is marching up to her destiny, it must be confessed that Daniel Webster never stood so strong and never so glorious as when he stood forth as the champion of Freedom on Plymouth Rock

Singular Libel Suit —The New York Tribune of November 4th says

Some time ago Charles Van Wyck, publisher of the Christian Intelligencer the well known organ of the Reformed Dutch Church was prosecuted for libel by Leicester A Sawyer author of a work denying the historical character authenticity and inspiration of the Pentateuch This work was sent to the editor of that paper the Rev Dr Porter who of course from his standpoint condemned it and in so doing referred to the various phases of religious opinion through which the mind of Sawyer had passed For this a suit was brought which was tried last week in the Circuit Court at Utica Judging from the reports of the trial which have appeared in papers published in Central New York the case furnished some novelties for a civil Court The question of the libel hinging upon the theological opinions of the parties afforded the lawyers a rare opportunity to display their acumen in discriminating between orthodoxy and heterodoxy There has been perhaps never before such a trial as this was in the civil Courts of this State The jury, as was to have been expected, could not agree

Cathartic Pills

(SUGAR COATED)
ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK
Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach

PITTSBURG, Pa, May 1
Dr J C Ayer Sir I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once If they will cure others as they do me the fact is worth knowing Yours with great respect
ED W PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D C
Sir I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ Indeed I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them Fraternally yours
ALONZO BALL, M D, Physician of the Marine Hospital

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE HARTLAND LIV CO, MICH, Nov 15
Dr Ayer Your Pills are the perfection of medicine They have done my wife more good than I can tell you She had been sick and pining away for months Went off to be doctored at great expense but got no better She then commenced taking your Pills which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills and lost much time without being cured entirely even then Such a medicine as yours which is actually good and honest will be prized here GEO J GRIFFIN, Postmaster

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood

From Rev J V Himes Pastor of Advent Church, Boston
Dr Ayer I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known and I can confidently recommend them to my friends Yours, J V HIMES

WARSAW, WYOMING Co, N Y, Oct 24 1855
Dear Sir I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.
JOHN G MEACHAM, M D

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St Louis, Feb 4 1856
Dr Ayer Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair After our child was cured she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her
ASA MORGRIDGE

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev Dr Hawkes of the Methodist Epis Church
PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA, Jan 6 1856
Honored Sir I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains which ended in chronic rheumatism Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr Mackenzie, I tried your Pills Their effects were slow, but sure By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, La, 5 Dec 1855
Dr Ayer I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years
VINCENT SLIDELL

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known Nay few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects, and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures Keep it by you and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that fastened on the vitals, eats your life away All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be We spare no cost, no care no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.
